I. Call the Meeting to Order:

Shawn Ray, Interim Parks Director; called the meeting to order at 6:05 pm.

II. Introductions

Melissa Valadez-Cummings, Aranda Bell, Shawn Ray, and project manager, Julie Gutierrez, were introduced and open the meeting with an Ice Breaker Vision Cloud.

III. Receive Update on Premier Library, Signature Park, and Trail Project.

- a. PGAL: Architect Team for the library was introduced. Jeff and Ray represented PGAL. They presented information to all present regarding current library trends.
- b. Ten Eyck: Landscaping Architect Team led by Brett Keese shared multiple image boards showing top priorities within our parks project. An example: Preserving nature, discovery & play, etc. As well as maintaining and continuing priorities already established such as community gardens and historical signage.
- c. Julie Gutierrez led several activities for those in attendance. Input was collected regarding the new library's style/design, use of space, color, etc. The design/architect team took notes, questioned, discussed, and gathered input. The landscape architect team shared "education of the land" showing topographical maps to suggest best places for park, building, etc. Option preferences and input was collected.

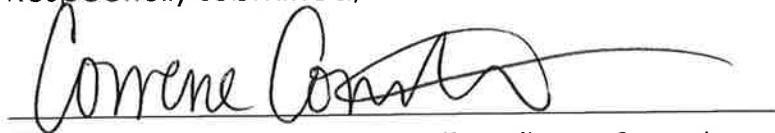

IV. Call to Action

It is the board/design committee's position to help with community outreach. There will be many events between Sept-Dec 2020 to help gather input. October 10th: Small group sessions at the Rec Center and the Library. Volunteers will be needed to make this happen. A call to action was made for the for those in attendance to spread the word and to help gather input from the community regarding the new library/signature park and trail.

V. Adjourn:

Councilman Gregory Glover thanked everyone for attending and supporting the new library/signature park and trail project. Meeting adjourned at 8:10pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Correne Constantino, Executive Library Secretary

Christine Benson, Library Board President
