The City of Cedar Hill, Texas

May 2011

Maybe you lost some sleep during the last stormy night.

City staffers were out working before, during and after the storms, keeping residents safe, removing hazards and getting things back to normal before most of us got up.

When storms arrive, City crews from the Public Works and Parks departments, Administration, as well as Police and Fire departments work to insure the public's safety.

When potentially serious weather approaches, storm spotters are notified to be ready to deploy on short notice. They may be sent out during the afternoon or in the middle of the night. Spotters stay in contact with the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) via radio. The spotters report damaging winds, flooding rains, hail, funnel clouds and tornados. Personnel in the EOC monitor local radars and weather reports.

"When certain weather events occur, the outdoor warning siren system is activated, said Fire Chief John Ballard. "These events include severe wind conditions, large hail and tornados. When you hear the sirens, you should seek immediate shelter inside. Listen to local radio or television to obtain further information. It's also a good idea to keep your cell phone with you."

As storms pass, the spotter team transitions to damage assessment. These crews patrol assigned areas

The City requests no outside watering at all on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays to allow the system to replenish supplies in the water storage tanks.

KCHB & Arbor Day Foundation celebrate the 'greening' of Cedar Hill

Over 100 volunteers from the community helped pick up litter all over Cedar Hill and joined together to celebrate Arbor Day in April.

After the litter pick up, coordinated by Keep Cedar Hill Beautiful (KCHB), volunteers enjoyed a hot dog lunch from the Lions Club and door prizes provided by other sponsors.

The Parks & Recreation Department gave away trees.

The highlight of the day was the Arbor Day Proclamation read by Mayor Rob Franke and the announcement that for the third year Cedar Hill is recognized by the Arbor Day Foundation as a Tree City USA.

"We commend Cedar Hill's elected officials, volunteers and its citizens for providing vital care for its urban forest," said John Rosenow, chief executive and founder of the Arbor Day Foundation. "Trees provide numerous environmental economical and health benefits."

and report fallen trees, downed power lines, dark traffic signals, flooded streets and rising creek levels.

As these conditions are reported to the EOC, crews are assigned to set up temporary stop signs, block off areas of high water, detour traffic where necessary and begin removing debris from the streets.

Remember that downed power lines should be treated as if they are live. Report them to 911 immediately.

Residents should report power outages to service providers at the following numbers: Oncor – 1.888.313.4747 or Hilco Electric Coop – 1.800.338.6425

By the time most of us get up, much of the recovery work has been completed. City crews were out during and after the storm and stay until the situation is under control.

Remember, these are not special crews, they are the same people you see every day mowing the medians, patrolling the streets and keeping your water system working properly.

Next time a storm wakes you up, remember that City personnel are out there watching over the city and working to resolve issues so that you can get on with your day.

Protect puppies from Parvo

Simply vaccinating your dog annually will protect him from two deadly viruses, Parvo and Distemper

if caught early and treated immediately but can be expensive

Distemper virus

- Often difficult to diagnose as, at first, it mimics a common upper respiratory infection first (coughing, sneezing, runny nose)
- Can progress to affect every system in the body including the central nervous system causing twitching and seizures

Parvo virus

- Young dogs and puppies are at a greater risk
- The virus is extremely hardy, surviving up to 6 months outside of its host.
- First signs are lethargy and loss of appetite followed by vomiting, diarrhea and dehydration
- Survival is possible

For more information about these fatal viruses and to get your pet protected, contact your veterinarian. A list of local veterinarians is available from the Tri-City Animal Shelter & Adoption Center at 972.291.5335.

Family Kite Fly Winner

Lexis Jackson won a free designer kite, donated by Gloria Harmon, at the Family Kite Fly event sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Dept. on April 10. Young people of all ages enjoyed seeing the brightly colored creations dancing in the sky over Valley Ridge Park.

City Council

Above: Mayor Rob Franke presents a proclamation designating National Public Safety Telecommunications Week to Dona Fernandes, Managing Director of Southwest Regional Communications Center, the dispatch center for 911 calls for the cities of Cedar Hill, DeSoto and Duncanville. Fernandes later presented information about SMART 9-1-1 to the City Council.

Below: City Council member Wallace Swayze reads the inscription on her star to April's Star Student Shunkacia Lewis, an 11th grade student at the Collegiate High School. Shunkacia was nominated by her teachers for her academic and leadership achievements at the school.

Below: At the E-waste Event in April, a television, headed for recycling, is unloaded from the pickup of a Cedar Hill resident. This TV, added to a semi-truckload of other TVs, monitors, computers, printers and other electronic gear, was taken to a recycling vendor who saves over 95% from the landfill.

In 2004 the cities of Cedar Hill, Lancaster, DeSoto, and Duncanville combined resources to create the Annual Best Southwest Juneteenth Celebration. Each year the event rotates to another city and the event gets bigger and better.

Juneteenth originated as a celebration of the ending of slavery in Texas when on June 19, 1865, Major General Gordon Granger and 1,800 troops of the Union Army arrived in Galveston, Texas and announced that the Civil War had ended and all enslaved persons were free. Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration honoring the ending of slavery.

Admission is free. For additional information visit <http://bit.ly/BEST-SOUTHWEST> or call 972.291.5130.
