CEDAR HILL WELCOMES PRATT INDUSTRIES IN NEW REGIONAL MANUFACTURING & INNOVATION CENTER

In April, the Cedar Hill City Council approved an agreement with Pratt Industries, Inc. to locate a Regional Manufacturing & Innovation Center at High Point 67. Pratt will be the primary tenant on the High Point 67 campus, occupying one million square feet and investing more than $200 million in equipment, inventory, and building improvements.

Pratt is America's 5th largest corrugated packaging company and the world's largest, privately-held producer of 100% recycled containerboard. The Georgia-based company operates an extensive Recycling Company to supply five of the most modern, 100% recycled paper mills in the country.

Pratt's Cedar Hill facility will employ 150 full-time workers to manufacture corrugated boxes and custom packaging solutions.

"The City's partnership with Hillwood on the High Point 67 project is already bearing fruit for our community through significant capital investment and well-paying green-collar jobs," says Mayor Stephen Mason. "I am thrilled to welcome Pratt Industries to Cedar Hill as a company that shares our values of community partnership and environmental sustainability. Pratt's Regional Manufacturing and Innovation Center is one more example of opportunities growing naturally in Cedar Hill."

"We are excited to partner with the city of Cedar Hill and its officials to open this state of the art facility and bring new, green collar jobs to the area," said Mike Tansey, President of Pratt's Southwest Converting Division.

Pratt plans to sponsor a training and development program in collaboration with the city and school district.

"Pratt believes in investing in our employees and the communities where we live, work and serve," said Tansey. "We have a strong history of providing continuous education, apprenticeships and on-the-job training opportunities for our employees. This joint collaboration with Cedar Hill and the school district is a great opportunity for us to encourage and invest in the community's young talent and to help them find meaningful employment and long term financial stability."

CEDAR HILL RESTAURANT, TEACHER FEATURED ON THE DREW BARRYMORE SHOW

Renowned actress Drew Barrymore, the host of the nationally-televised Drew Barrymore Show in New York on CBS, made a visit to Cedar Hill in March to surprise Plummer Elementary Teacher of the Year Patricia Byrd and enjoy award-winning barbecue at Harris Bar-B-Que.

Harris Bar-B-Que moved to Cedar Hill in 2019, where they fit right in with other locally-owned Cedar Hill favorites like Sam's Pizza and Dick's Uptown Café. Owners Angie and Kelvin Harris dish up smoke meats, delicious sides, and a friendly hometown atmosphere that earned the restaurant a spot in Texas Monthly's "Top-50 Barbecue Joints in Texas".

"We're thrilled to welcome The Drew Barrymore Show to Cedar Hill to share some of the stories of the people and places that make this community special," says Mayor Stephen Mason. "Angie and Kelvin Harris and Patricia Byrd are great ambassadors for Cedar Hill, and I can't wait to see them featured on the show."

Barrymore surprised Byrd outside of Plummer Elementary, as Barrymore presented her with a free trip to Key Largo, Florida and a $20,000 donation for a new playground at Plummer – the district's second-oldest elementary campus.
