CEDAR HILL HONORS GRADUATES OF THE CITIZENS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY AND CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY

The City of Cedar Hill celebrated two major community programs in November: the graduation of the Citizens Leadership Academy and the graduation of the Citizens Police Academy.

Twenty five residents completed the Citizen's Leadership Academy after seven sessions with city departments, gaining insight into how Cedar Hill operates and how they can stay engaged. Program leaders reported that all survey respondents plan to volunteer or pursue service on a board or commission.

The City also honored the largest graduating class of the Citizens Police Academy, a free nine week program hosted by the Police and Community Team of the Cedar Hill Police Department. Participants received hands on instruction in areas such as criminal investigations, use of force, drone operations, K9 demonstrations, and crime scene procedures.
